Craftsman and the Ceramic Studio enable the Library to duplicate these volumes in the Circulating Library for students.

Other gifts comprise seventeen volumes of the "Museum of painting and sculpture" by Duchesne, from Mr. Frederick Latimer Wells, and books from Tiemen de Vries, Miss Harriet E. Nourse and Mr. Albert J. Küssner. Mr. Küssner has also left in the Library as a loan "Ornithology or science of birds" by Dr. Brehm and "Birds of North America," drawn and colored from life by Theodore Jasper.

The Photograph and Slide Department has purchased thirty-three photographs of sculptures in the Pergamon Museum. Fourteen slides of buildings and scenes on the Exposition grounds at San Diego were presented by the Panama-California Exposition Committee. Gifts of slides were also received from Mr. Lorado Taft and Miss A. O. Simpkin.
